

ATER

OFFICIAL PRESS KIT

ATER, an enigmatic band from Santiago, Chile, was formed in 2010 by Chilean multi-instrumentalist Fernando "Feroz" Bühring, initially named "Aeons Collide" and later rebranded as "ATER" in 2013. The band, known for its dark and heavy sound, integrates Black and Death Metal with progressive elements and deep, growling vocals. ATER's debut album, "Eternal Gray Spiral," self-released in January 2018, achieved notable success with over 200,000 streams on Spotify, despite minimal promotion. The band's lineup evolved after Fernando met Josh "Sol" Seguin and Stephan "Kalani" Seguin at a MESHUGGAH show in Los Angeles, transitioning from an instrumental project to a full band, and began gaining popularity in the LA Metal scene.

ATER's second album, "SOMBER," recorded during the COVID-19 pandemic, marks a new era for the band. Mixed by Fernando in Mexico City and mastered by Ted Jensen of Sterling Sound, "SOMBER" is an intense blend of low-tuned instruments and dark ambiance.

The sophomore release was released April 19th 2024 and has been very well received with great reviews (10/10 ever-metal.com, 8.5/10 blessedaltarzine.com, 4.5/5 metalepidemic.com), features on Metal Injection and Metal Hammer UK, more spotlight than ever and a wave of new fans.

Currently, ATER is focused on expanding their global reach. They carried out a very successful album release show in Santiago, Chile and will be performing at a string of shows in Colombia alongside Graveworm (Italy) and Eshtadur (Colombia).

Recently aligned forces with The Flaming Arts agency.
